

Name:

Google's Advanced Search

The proper input of search terms will increase your search efficiency and give you better results.

Type in your search term and then click on the gear to find Advanced Search

For these questions use Googles "ADVANCED SEARCH" feature:

1. Where did pigs originate?

In the "All these words" box type "pig history".
In the "None of these" box type "guinea" -this should eliminate websites with guinea pigs.

Do any of the results have guinea?

Pigs are native to?

2. Where do mustang horses originate?

All of these words: mustang horse
None of these: ford, car
Last update: past year
Reading level: show only basic results

Do any of the results mention ford or car?

What country are mustangs from?

3. When is the art tour to Turkey?

All of these words: Turkey history tour
None of these: bird Thanksgiving
Last update: past month
File type: Adobe Acrobat PDF (.pdf)

Are all the results pdf files?

Tour dates:

4. Where were vampire moths found?

All of these words: moths vampire

None of these: butterflies

Last update: anytime

Terms appearing: in the title of the page

File type: Any format

Where?

5. Long Island Railroad

All of these words: history

This exact word or phrase: long island

Any of these words: railroad LIRR

None of these: schedules

Numbers ranging from 1900 to 1950

Site or domain: .edu

Read the result descriptions & List one interesting fact :

For 6 & 7 I want YOU to create an advanced search for me. You need to use at least 4 of Googles advanced search options. Format it similarly to how I formatted mine. Make sure you try it out.

6.

7.

Save as ADVANCED SEARCHES your last name and hand in electronically.